

MASSACHUSETTS JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE CONSTITUTION

amended at the 62nd MassJCL State Convention on April 29th, 2018

Preamble

We, the members of the National Junior Classical League of Massachusetts, in order to promote cooperation among the chapters, to establish a basis of order, to better unite the members of this organization, and to promote friendship and understanding among the members, do hereby adopt the following constitution and agree to abide by its rules.

Article I

Name & Purpose

Section I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the Massachusetts Junior Classical League (MassJCL).

Section II: Purpose

The purpose of this organization shall be: to promote a more thorough knowledge of Classical history, life, and literature; to impart a better understanding of the practical and cultural values of the Classics; and, to foster academic enthusiasm for the studies of Latin and Greek.

Section III: Emblem

The emblem shall be a torch encircled in a laurel wreath. The colors shall be Roman purple and gold.

Article II

Membership

Section I: Members

The organization's membership shall be of two kinds: members of school chapters and members at large. All members shall be admitted automatically to the MassJCL upon payment of MassJCL dues.

Section II: School Chapter Membership

A. School chapters of the National Junior Classical League located in Massachusetts shall be considered chapters of the MassJCL.

B. All MassJCL school chapters are required to be members of the National Junior Classical League.

C. MassJCL school chapters whose members have paid both MassJCL and National JCL dues shall be considered 'in good standing.'

Section III: Membership at Large

Members at large shall include the active members of the National Junior Classical League for whom no local chapter exists.

Article III
Executive Board

Section I:

Activities of the MassJCL shall be initiated and organized by an Executive Board consisting of nine (9) Student Officers and the State Chairs.

Section II: Meetings

- A. The Executive Board shall meet at least five (5) times a year at a central location.
- B. Meetings of the Executive Board shall abide by Robert's Rules of Order Revised unless the present Constitution, bylaws, or standing rules otherwise provide.
- C. State Officers and State Chairs shall be the only ones permitted to vote at meetings, with each state officer possessing one (1) vote and the state chairs collectively possessing three (3).

Article IV
Officers and State Chairs

Section I: Offices Defined

The elected student officers of this organization shall be: President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Parliamentarian, Historian, Publications Editor, and Technical Coordinator.

Section II: Qualifications for Office

- A. To qualify as an officer the student must be enrolled in a classics class or independent study for the term of office or have completed all the classics courses offered by his school. Post Graduates and midterm Graduates shall not be eligible for office.
- B. Three candidates for elected and appointed offices shall be allowed from each chapter. A chapter may hold no more than three offices on the Executive Board.
- C. Any student wishing to run for the executive board must have attended at least one prior State Convention.
- D. Candidates must be at least 12 years of age by the opening of registration for National Convention to run.

Section III: Restrictions

- A. No person may hold the same elected office for more than one term. A chapter may not hold the same elected office for more than two successive terms. A term shall begin at the transition meeting following the election and end at the next year's transition meeting.

B. In order to run for office candidates must be present at the State Convention and comply with article IV, section IV.

C. For the office of Second Vice President all candidates must have attended at least one National Convention and be able to attend the upcoming National Convention.

D. For the office of President all candidates must have served at least one term on the executive board.

Section IV: Elections

A. In order to become a candidate for the MassJCL executive board, one must submit an application form to the current Parliamentarian by the specified date. Candidates for the offices of Historian, Publications Editor, and Technical Coordinator will be required to submit a composition of relevant works to the current Parliamentarian in PDF, Image, or URL form, alongside their State Candidacy applications (both are due by the specified date). These materials will be displayed at State Convention.

B. At State Convention, candidates are required to give a speech at the specified General Assembly unless they are granted an exception by the current Parliamentarian before the start of State Convention.

C. All candidates are required to attend the Candidates' Open Forum held during State Convention.

D. Candidates may campaign at the State Convention after candidate speeches conclude, but only in accordance with the rules and guidelines set forth in the Convention Packet.

E. Candidates may not address, refer to, or mention any other candidate in their campaign speeches. Failure to comply may result in disqualification at the discretion of the Parliamentarian. If a state of emergency should be declared, the procedure described in Article VII, Section IV shall be followed.

F. Elections shall take place at the State Convention by the voting process described in Article VII, Section II.

Section V: Vacancies

A. In the event that an elected officer becomes unable to serve on the executive board, the remaining officers and State Chairs shall work together to select a candidate to be elected by a 2/3 majority vote.

1. The newly elected officer will serve either under the title of the vacant office or as the "MassJCL Officer Pro Tem." under the discretion of the Executive Board. In order to be considered the "MassJCL Officer Pro Tem." the board must agree with a 2/3 majority vote. The MassJCL Officer Pro Tem. shall be responsible for completing the duties of the vacant office while assisting the remaining MassJCL officers as necessary. The Officer Pro Tem. is not eligible to run for MassJCL President unless a previous office has been held. The Officer Pro Tem. is allowed to run for the vacant office in the future provided that they have not already served as that officer.

B. If the potential replacement is not appointed, the remaining officers and State Chairs shall work together to select a candidate to be elected by a 2/3 majority vote.

Section VI: Candidates for National Junior Classical League Office

A. In order to run for a National Junior Classical League office, one must have served on the MassJCL Executive Board.

B. All those interested in national candidacy must make their intent known to the current MassJCL president by the specified date.

C. At the first MassJCL Executive Board meeting immediately following the specified date deadline, each candidate's application describing his/her qualifications for National Office will be reviewed by the Executive Board, in preparation for choosing one (1) candidate.

D. No applicant for National Junior Classical League office may be present for or participate in the review of their application.

E. After reviewing each application, the Executive Board shall select one (1) candidate from among the applicants by a simple majority vote.

F. MassJCL State Chairs will endorse the candidate selected by the Executive Board.

Section VII: State Chairs

A. State Chairs shall be elected by the sponsors at the State Convention by a simple majority, with each sponsor casting one (1) vote.

B. Upon election, the State Chair shall serve for a term of five (5) years.
